Hi Yarissa,

Please see Rusty's email below. He is asking if you can meet with contractors on Monday (which is actually the 24 not 23) to collect samples.

Fyi, Rusty, Yarissa is out today but in the office tomorrow morning.

Let me know,

Dana

Hi Dana:

I sent a message to you and Yarissa about her possibly helping with split sampling at McColl since I'm deployed to Durango for the mine spill. I'm supposed to meet my contractor out there Monday the 23rd and take 4 split samples, one a duplicate, and one field blank.

Can you talk to her and let me know? Otherwise I need to let the lab know and see if they can do it, or I just skip this year.

Rusty
